

Department: Retail

Job Title: Key Holder (assistant retail manager)

FT Weekdays & Weekends Schedule will vary (can start as early as 7:00am and end as late as 7:30)

This is an entry level manager position for someone with excellent selling and customer service skills. The job includes handling customer returns/problems, opening and closing the registers, overseeing other sales associates and ensuring that all customers receive the highest level of service. It is a very responsible position and would require you to be the manager in charge of the store on occasion. Retail experience is required for this position. Some plant knowledge would be a plus.
